Hello St. Ann's families! On October 2-3 the 7/8 grade is putting on a Fun-Raiser for the students to raise money for St. Jude's Cancer Research Hospital. There will be a bake sale, face painting, and games. The bake sale will have all sorts of yummy goodies that will be peanut free. For face painting, we are using washable paint and you can choose lots of cool designs. On Thursday, the Fun-Raiser will be from 2-3 PM and on Friday, it will be from 2:00 to 3:40 PM - so kids if you'll want to bring your parents on Friday! Please bring money with you to play the games and to make a donation to St. Jude's. The games and face painting are 25-50 cents, so bring quarters! Also bring money to try some yummy goodies from the bake sale. If you have any questions or comments please let us know! You can email Ms. Demeter at meggy.demeter@stanns-school.org or come in after school to the science room. Thanks!

Angels

Last Monday was the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel, and tomorrow we celebrate the Feast of the Guardian Angels. Since I was a child, I have always been fascinated about the guardian angels and what role they have in my life today. I have come to firmly believe that one has been appointed to me and often joke that mine has a vicious sense of humor, enjoying nothing more than putting me in hairy situations where I must practice verbal restraint. Kidding aside, however, there have also been numerous situations, many of them sad, when I have felt a comforting touch or a sudden sense of calm and have been sure that my guardian angel was there to intercede.

I have two favorite angel prayers. As a child before bed, my brother, mom, and I would recite the "Angel of God" prayer for guidance and protection. It still continues to be one of my favorites as it calls to mind God's ever watchful love for us. As an adult, however, nothing tops the "St. Michael the Archangel" prayer. I particularly like this prayer for its image of Michael as God's right hand soldier and conqueror of evil. Whereas one prayer creates almost an image of someone holding my hand, urging me along, the prayer to St. Michael fires me up and reinforces my determination to seek the good. I still recite these two prayers, one when I need comfort and the other when I am looking for strength and resilience. Both prayers are a beautiful reminder that we are not in this life alone but that we have God's own champions at our side as we go about our daily struggles and celebrations. Perhaps this week when saying your prayers include an angel prayer in the mix.

Guardian Angel Prayer

Angel of God,
my guardian dear,
To whom God's love
commits me here,
Ever this day,
be at my side,
To light and guard,
Rule and guide.
Amen.

Prayer to St. Michael the Archangel

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.
Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the Devil.
May God rebuke him, we humbly pray,
and do thou,
O Prince of the heavenly hosts,
by the power of God,
thrust into hell Satan,
and all the evil spirits,
who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

From infancy to death human life is surrounded by their (the angels) watchful care and intercession. Beside each believer stands an angel as protector and shepherd leading him to life. Already here on earth the Christian life shares by faith in the blessed company of angels and men united to God."
