Principal's Corner

Called By Name

The daily readings at Mass these days since Easter have been taken from the Acts of the Apostles. As I reflect upon them each morning, I am conscious of the fact that these readings are really a detailed, chronicled history of our faith at its beginning. Indeed, our Lord's followers are called "Christian" for the first time in these readings. What did that name mean? What does that name, Christian mean today? For you and I, what does it mean "to be called by name", by the name of Christian in society today?

I suspect that it means what it always has... One who believes in Jesus and who is willing to proclaim the message of the Gospel to others; one who is courageous enough to seek God's will and allows that will to be done; one who acts on behalf of others in the community of believers; one who is generous with time and talents. The list could go on and on, as you and I know. The length of the list is not what is the key here. What is important is that you and I try each day to be worthy of the name, "Christian". My prayers are offered for you as you continue your journey of following in Jesus' footsteps this Easter season and each day.
