“As he blessed them, he left them and was taken up to heaven.” (Luke 24:51)

This Sunday we celebrate the Feast of the Ascension. After he died and rose from the dead, Jesus still mingled with his disciples, but things were different. Before his death, he performed many actions and shared many teachings. He spoke to his followers about who he was and what he hoped to do. After his resurrection, however, his message changed. He began telling his followers that they were going to have to start doing the things he had done. They were now the ones who would forgive and heal and preach and teach. He would be with them through his Spirit, but the main responsibility would be theirs.

Just as the disciples, we, too, are guided by Jesus in our efforts to bring his message to others. As we celebrate Jesus' Ascension into heaven, How can we proclaim his word in our own home, in our community, in our workplace? How can we personally continue Jesus' mission of love? How can we witness to the love of God, our faith in Jesus and the power of forgiveness? Jesus' message did not end with the disciples, but is offered as a challenge to us to be his hands, his voice and his heart of love in the world today!

As We Celebrate The Ascension of the Lord...

Lord, our God, Your Son now sits at your right hand in glory and yet we know that He is also here with us. He has promised that He would be with us always. Even though we can not see Him, Jesus Christ does live in us and through us. May His care and protection bring us peace and joy. Help us to feel His strong, living presence in our lives today and always. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen
