EDUCATION. The School agrees to provide academic and religious education for each student for the school year, subject to the student's and Parent's compliance with the Contract and all School and Diocese of Madison, Office of Catholic Schools, policies. The School believes that education should deal with the whole person but understands that each student is a unique individual created in the image and likeness of God. Catholic education adds the dimension of a value system with Christ as a model. The School shall seek to create an atmosphere of faith, community and caring. Frequent prayer, participation in liturgies, encouragement of academic excellence, and the development of a student's potential are the essence of the School's philosophy. In cooperation with Parent, who is the primary educator, the School's aim is to instill basic principles and to act as a motivator in the classroom. However, Parent acknowledges that the School has limited financial resources and may not be able to provide the resources to meet all of the special or exceptional needs of some students. In such instances, the School reserves the right to assist the family in finding alternative services for the student.

Parent acknowledges and agrees that tuition and other charges are paid and made to ensure a place in the School for the student and not for a period of attendance. The absence of a student does not materially decrease the expenses of the School Therefore, except as otherwise provided in this Contract, Parent shall be responsible for full payment for the entire school year

Parent hereby acknowledges and agrees that a Parent’s failure to cooperate with the School, its employees or the Pastor, in their efforts to educate or discipline a student may be seriously disruptive of the School generally and frustrate its philosophy and obligation to educate all other students. Accordingly, the Parent agrees to be subject to, and abide by, all policies, rules and regulations of the School or Office of Catholic Schools now in force and hereinafter enacted at any time. Parent further agrees to be respectful of the School, all of its employees, and the Pastor in all of the Parent’s contacts with the School regarding a student.
